2022 IPSWA boys basketball all-state teams announced; Lipsey named Mr. Basketball

DES MOINES — The Iowa Print Sports Writers Association (IPSWA) announced the 2022 boys basketball all-state teams on Tuesday. The teams were selected by print sports writers in Iowa during a meeting on Saturday, March 12.

Finishing his high school career Friday with a triple-double to lead Ames to a Class 4A state title, sports writers and coaches voted Tamin Lipsey as Mr. Basketball. The Iowa State Cyclone signee adds the honor to a resume that includes a 2019 gold medal in the FIBA Americas U16 Championship.

The 6-foot-2 senior averaged 15.7 points per game, shot 56.7% from the field, and 72.5% from the charity stripe this season for the Ames Little Cyclones. He broke the school's record for career assists with 339.

Certificates can be generated as PDFs for players selected to all-state by visiting the "Create Certificates" link on our website, www.iowasportswriters.com.

Sports writers attending the meeting included Daryl Schepanski (Anamosa Journal-Eureka), Scott Spurgeon (Bloomfield Democrat), Jeff Johnson (Cedar Rapids Gazette), Jared Larson (Creston News), Zach Martin (Mason City Globe Gazette), Ross Thede (Marshalltown Times-Republican), Noah Rohlfing (Marshalltown Times-Republican), Matt Gengler (Missouri Valley Times), Pete Temple (Monticello Express), Colin Peters (Oskaloosa Herald), Kyle Ocker (Ottumwa Courier), Matt Coss (Quad-City Times) and Dale Wenger (Sac Sun).
